“horse trainer” (f/m/o)
for September 2021

Description of the work place

The State Stud Redefin is a commercial enterprise of the federal state of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. The stud has a staff of 30 employees and 10 trainees who take care of 140 horses.

Besides the EU insemination station with 30 stallions, the federal riding and driving school for the state of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern is also located at the State Stud Redefin. In addition, colts are raised and trained at the State Stud to complement the stock of breeding and riding horses.

The State Stud is a modern provider for all services relating to horses. It offers various possibilities for breeding, training, presenting and marketing of their horses to the breeders in the catchment area.

As a tourist hotspot in the state, the State Stud is a year-round contact point for tourists and a venue for various events, exhibitions and equestrian highlights in the region. From classical music concerts to garden exhibitions, various associations and organisations also hold events, such as the Mecklenburg main licensing.

All in all, the State Stud Redefin is a highly interesting place to work in and one that gives you an insight into many areas relating to horse breeding and equestrian sport as well as tourism.
